HAVE you noticed how many brides and bridegrooms have gone to the Adirondacks on their wedding trips of late? The Andrew Porlers were up there for several weeks and the Herbert Churches. I heard that there ware eight bridal couples at one hotel alone. Mustn't it have been a scream to see them all together and watch them spot each other. You can't get away with it ever. Somehow or other, you give yourselves away on that wedding trip. Or you get along safely and think no one knows you are a newlywed, and are just about ready to go home, having "put it over" on everyone, having "put it over" on everyone he family arrives and rushes up to you, exclaiming in a loud voice: "Well. I declare, if here are not the "W II. I declare, if here are not the and groom!" And everyone be-

RITA HECKSCHER is leaving today for Saunderstown. R. I., where she is going to visit Nancy Cope, at her mother's cottage, for about ten days. Saunderstown is a delightful place to visit, and I am sure she will have a wonderful time. It is close to Jamestown, Newport and Narragansett Pier, where both Rita and Nancy Cope have let of friends, and it is such fun going over from one place to another, either in a yacht or on the ferry. Nancy took part in the Unique Opera Co., which gave two performances last spring and which perved to be a great success. which proved to be a great success. She is the daughter of Mrs. Walter time she struck a hard place.

Then one morning she and mother and sister started down to the creek to go in bathing. Peggy was walking along without shoes, when mother said:

long without shoes, when mother said:
"Peggy, I wish you would wear your gymnasium shoes. I am so afraid you will cut your foot."

Peggy immediately became very dignified and walked on apace. Then in a very patient voice she remarked:
"Mother, you make me wear shoes and socks everywhere how do you ever expect me to get tough feet?" NANCY WYNNE.
